

Mission & Community!

Tuolumne County Public Library Literacy Services is a learner focused program aimed at helping to build a stronger community by providing equal access to literacy that enables learners to find their strengths and contribute as family members, workers, and citizens. This is a free, confidential, and individualized service for English-speaking adults interested in developing their literacy skills. Volunteer tutors help by empowering adult learners to celebrate their creativity, develop important social connections, and achieve lifelong goals. If you would like to contribute monetarily you can send your tax deductible donation to:
