Frequently Asked Questions

Will I have to work overtime?

Currently we are working at minimum staffing levels. This means if someone calls in sick or is on vacation someone else will have to cover that position on an overtime basis.

Will I have to carry a gun?

There are no firearms allowed within the DDC, however, every uniformed member of the Tuolumne County Sheriff's Office, including jail personnel, is required to be trained under Section 832 of the Penal Code. They are required to qualify with a firearm and maintain their qualification while employed by the Sheriff's Office.

Will I have to work at night?

The DDC operates 24 hours a day, seven days a week. You will be required to work a shift that is part of the normal rotation of all jail personnel. Typically, a new person will work on a graveyard team until they achieve enough seniority to move to a dayshift or special assignment.

Will I get specific break and lunch times?

The Department Policy authorizes break and lunch periods. In all reality breaks and lunch times will be granted as time allows. Therefore, there is no set time for breaks. Personnel do not leave the building for meals, however, there is meal service provided at not cost to the employee.

Will there be times when I have to physically control or restrain inmates?

As Jail Deputies we are required to maintain control of an inmate at all times. There will be incidents when physical contact with an inmate is necessary. Weaponless defense, arrest and control techniques are taught to Jail Deputies.

Will I be exposed to communicable disease?

Jail staff is trained to use universal precautions when dealing directly with inmates. Protective gloves, and proper PPE are provided.
